

Ioannides Demetriou LLC “TOP RANKED” in Chambers and Partners 2020 Global Guide

TOP RANKED

Ioannides Demetriou LLC

Ioannides Demetriou LLC are happy to advise that they have retained their top ranking in Chambers and Partners 2020. The inclusion of Pambos Ioannides, Andrew Demetriou, Christina Ioannidou and Christos Frakalas in the guide demonstrates our strength in the fields of Dispute Resolution and Corporate/Commercial.

In the 2020 report of Chambers and Partners, researchers note that Ioannides Demetriou LLC is a "multi-talented group advising clients on cross-border and Cypriot cases, particularly well regarded for its arbitration and litigation practice. Widely respected for expertise in administrative and public law. Regularly active on construction, real estate and projects-related disputes. Represents a wide variety of clients involved in areas such as energy, banking and insurance, as well as assisting public sector clients. Recently active handling arbitral award enforcement proceedings".

The same report contains a review on the firm's ranked lawyers, which praises their work by providing feedback from market commentators and third-party practitioners:

Pambos Ioannides [who is top ranked and a senior statespeople in the fields of Dispute Resolution and Corporate/Commercial] is well reputed for his long-standing expertise in dispute resolution, with sources enthusing that he is a "strong name in the field". "He frequently represents clients in real estate disputes. Ioannides is also a renowned arbitrator, acting on both domestic and international commercial arbitrations. One interviewee reports that he has an "excellent reputation" in Cyprus. Pambos Ioannides is a highly esteemed practitioner with decades of experience in corporate matters, including commercial transactions and financial restructurings on behalf of leading Cypriot investors and corporate entities. Clients acknowledge his authority in this field, with one extolling him as "excellent," before adding, "His knowledge is indisputable."

Andrew Demetriou [who is top ranked in the field of Dispute Resolution] remains one of the leading figures in the market for international and domestic arbitrations. He is also highly skilled in handling domestic litigation, including construction and projects-related disputes. Clients enthuse that he has "deep knowledge and extensive experience."

Christina Ioannidou [who is ranked in the field of Corporate/Commercial] enters the rankings this year following an abundance of praise from clients, who highlight her for being "very calm, logical and analytical". She acts for banks, universities and energy companies on acquisitions and financings, as well as regulatory and restructuring issues. One impressed interviewee remarks: "I appreciate that she doesn't go around the matter but is to the point and offers solutions".

Litigation partner Christos Frakalas [who is ranked in the field of Dispute Resolution also gained recognition in the guide] which states that "he acts for local and foreign corporate clients on a range of proceedings, including recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards".

We would like to thank all research participants for giving positive feedback for our firm and we promise that we will continue to strive to provide the same high standard of services in all matters entrusted to us by our clients.

Pambos Ioannides

Andrew Demetriou

Christina Ioannidou

Christos Frakalas